Introduction: The National Service Scheme (NSS) units I and II of Kabikankan Mukundaram Mahavidyalaya undertook a village cleaning campaign as an extension activity. This initiative aimed to contribute to community welfare by promoting cleanliness and hygiene in the surrounding villages. A total of 16 enthusiastic volunteers participated in this noble endeavour.

Objectives:

1. To promote cleanliness and hygiene awareness among villagers.
2. To encourage active participation in community service.
3. To foster a sense of responsibility towards environmental conservation.

Activities: The NSS units I and II of Kabikankan Mukundaram Mahavidyalaya undertook a cleaning campaign, involving 29 volunteers in a concerted effort to promote cleanliness and hygiene within the community of Keshabpur village which is an NSS adopted village. Preceding the event, planning sessions were held to allocate responsibilities and procure necessary equipments. Volunteers divided into groups to tackle designated areas, diligently clearing litter, debris, and sweeping. Simultaneously, an awareness campaign was conducted, with volunteers talking to the villagers on the importance of cleanliness.

Outcomes: Through their participation in the cleanup campaign, NSS volunteers gained valuable hands-on experience in community service and environmental conservation. They developed leadership skills, teamwork abilities, and a deeper understanding of the challenges and rewards of grassroots initiatives.

Report on Blood Donation Camp

02/08/2022

- Event Name: Blood Donation Camp
- Date and time: 02/08/2022, 11 AM.
- Organizing Body: NSS Unit I & II, Kabikankan Mukundaram Mahavidyalaya
- Programme Officers: Rajib Roy & Achintya Kumar Bag
- No. of Donors: 48
- Brief Description of the Event: NSS Unit I and II of Kabikankan Mukundaram Mahavidyalaya organized a Voluntary Blood Donation Camp on 02/08/2022. The event saw enthusiastic participation from teachers, students, and members of the local community. A medical team from Arambagh Sub-divisional Hospital was present to assist and oversee the proceedings. The camp successfully collected 44 units of blood, all of which were deposited to the Govt. Blood Bank of Arambagh Sub-divisional Hospital. This initiative not only helped in replenishing the blood bank but also served as an extension activity of the college aimed at serving the outer community. It strengthened the spirit of social responsibility and community engagement among all participants.
- Objectives:
 1. To promote voluntary blood donation awareness among students, teachers, and the local community.
 2. To contribute to the replenishment of the blood bank at Arambagh Subdivisional Hospital.
 3. To foster a sense of social responsibility and community service among participants.
 4. To facilitate collaboration between Kabikankan Mukundaram Mahavidyalaya and Arambagh Sub-divisional Hospital for community health initiatives.
- Outcomes of the Programme:
 1. Collection of 44 units of blood for the Govt. Blood Bank of Arambagh Sub-divisional Hospital.
 2. Increased awareness about the importance of voluntary blood donation.
 3. Strengthened community ties between the college and the local hospital.
 4. Enhanced sense of fulfilment and satisfaction among participants for contributing to a noble cause.

Event Report on Awareness Rally on Plastic

(07/08/2022)

- Name of Activity: Awareness Rally on Plastic
- Date: 07/08/2022
- Organizing Body: NSS UNIT I
- Programme Officers: Rajib Roy
- No of Volunteers Participated: 23
- Activities in Brief: On August 7, 2022, NSS Unit II successfully organized an awareness rally focusing on the detrimental impacts of plastic usage. The rally saw active participation from 23 dedicated NSS volunteers who embarked on a journey from the college ground to Keshabpur village. This event was a part of a larger green initiative aimed at promoting environmental consciousness beyond the confines of the campus.

During the rally, the volunteers carried placards and chanted slogans designed to educate and sensitize the public about the adverse effects of plastic pollution. These visual and verbal messages highlighted the importance of reducing plastic use and adopting sustainable alternatives to protect our environment.

- Objectives:
 1. To inform and educate the community about the environmental hazards of plastic usage.
 2. Encourage the adoption of eco-friendly alternatives to plastic among the local population.
 3. Nurture a sense of environmental responsibility within the community by involving them in the green initiative.

- Outcomes:

The rally successfully drew attention to the issue of plastic pollution, making the public more aware of the problem. The initiative received positive feedback from the residents of Keshabpur village, with many expressing their willingness to reduce plastic use. The event strengthened the commitment of the NSS volunteers towards environmental causes, boosting their enthusiasm for future initiatives.

Report on “Har Ghar Tiranga” Celebration

10/08/2022

- Event Name: HAR GHAR TIRANGA
- Date and time: 10/08/2022; 11.30 A.M.
- Occasion: Azadi ki Amrit Mahotsava (75th Independence of India)
- Organized by: NSS Unit I & II, Kabikankan Mukundaram Mahavidyalaya
- No. of NSS Volunteers Involved: 51
- Name of Locality Served: Keshabpur, Hooghly
- Brief Description of the Event: The two NSS Units of Kabikankan Mukundaram Mahavidyalaya celebrated the Azadi ki Amrit Mahotsava with due respect and dignity on 10/08/2022 on the occasion of India's 75th Independence. On this day, the teachers of the college along with the NSS Volunteers visited the local community and distributed the Indian National Flag to every household of the locality. The motto of the programme was to elevate a sense of national sentiment and pride among the rural populace. The Indian Tri-colour was also given to the tiny pupils of the local primary school. Everybody in the community received the flags with equal reverence and spontaneity.
- Outcome of the Programme:
 1. The distribution of the Indian National Flag instilled a strong sense of patriotism and belonging among the rural populace.
 2. The collaborative effort strengthened bonds between the college community and local residents, promoting a spirit of unity and collective responsibility.
 3. Providing flags to primary school students served as an educational opportunity, imparting values of respect and patriotism from a young age.
 4. Distributing flags to every household irrespective of socio-economic background emphasized inclusivity and promoted unity within the community.
