Report on One Day Yoga Training Camp (12/04/2022)

Name of Event	One Day Yoga Training Camp
Date	12/04/2022
Venue	Room No. 106
No of students Benefitted	27
Trainers' Name	1. Dhananjay Pandit, CCYE, PGDYE 2. Kabicharan Hansda, PGDYE
A Brief Description	The programme started with a brief introductory speech by the Teacher-in-charge highlighting the significance of Yoga in everyday life. The two trainers also delivered insightful talks on Yoga and its various aspects and forms. Then they moved on to guiding the students with practical demonstrations of various Yogic asanas . The students with eager interest performed many useful moves under the guidance of the skilled trainers. Above all the programme was a successful one.
Objective	The one-day yoga training camp was to provide students with an introduction to the foundational aspects of yoga practice. Through a series of guided sessions, the primary objective was to familiarize participants with basic yoga poses and breathing techniques. Additionally, the camp aims to promote relaxation and stress relief by offering techniques to manage stress and cultivate mental clarity. Another objective was to enhance participants' physical well-being by improving flexibility and balance through Yogic asanas .
Outcome	After attending the one-day yoga training camp, participants will learn basic yoga poses and breathing exercises they can use every day. They'll feel less stressed and more clear-headed, finding a sense of calm. Plus, they'll become more flexible and balanced, making them feel better physically. By practicing with others, they'll feel part of a supportive community, feeling more connected. Overall, the camp wants to help people see yoga as a way to feel better in both body and mind, helping them be more present and mindful in their lives.

Report on 30 Hour (13/03/2023 to 18/03/2023) Employability Skill Training Programme

Objectives: Kabikankan Mukundaram Mahavidyalaya, in partnership with Mahindra Pride Classroom of Naandi Foundation conducted a 30 hour employability skill training programme exclusively for female students. The programme aimed to equip participants with essential skills such as personality development, communication, language proficiency, and interview techniques to enhance their employability prospects.

A Brief Summary: Throughout the programme, participants engaged in interactive sessions covering various aspects crucial for career development. These sessions included personality development, communication skills enhancement, language proficiency refinement, interview techniques, and professional etiquette. A total of 55 female students enrolled in the programme, representing diverse academic backgrounds. The training was facilitated by experienced trainers from Mahindra Pride Classroom, who employed innovative teaching methodologies to engage participants effectively.

Outcomes: The programme yielded significant outcomes, including enhanced confidence, improved communication skills, refined language proficiency, better interview preparedness, and a deeper understanding of professional etiquette and workplace norms.

The seven-day employability skill training programme at Kabikankan Mukundaram Mahavidyalaya, conducted in collaboration with Mahindra Pride Classroom, successfully empowered female students with essential soft skills and professional competencies. Moving forward, sustained support for such initiatives is crucial to furthering the employability and holistic development of students.
